

Remembering the Ladies:

Patriots in Petticoats to Presidential Candidates

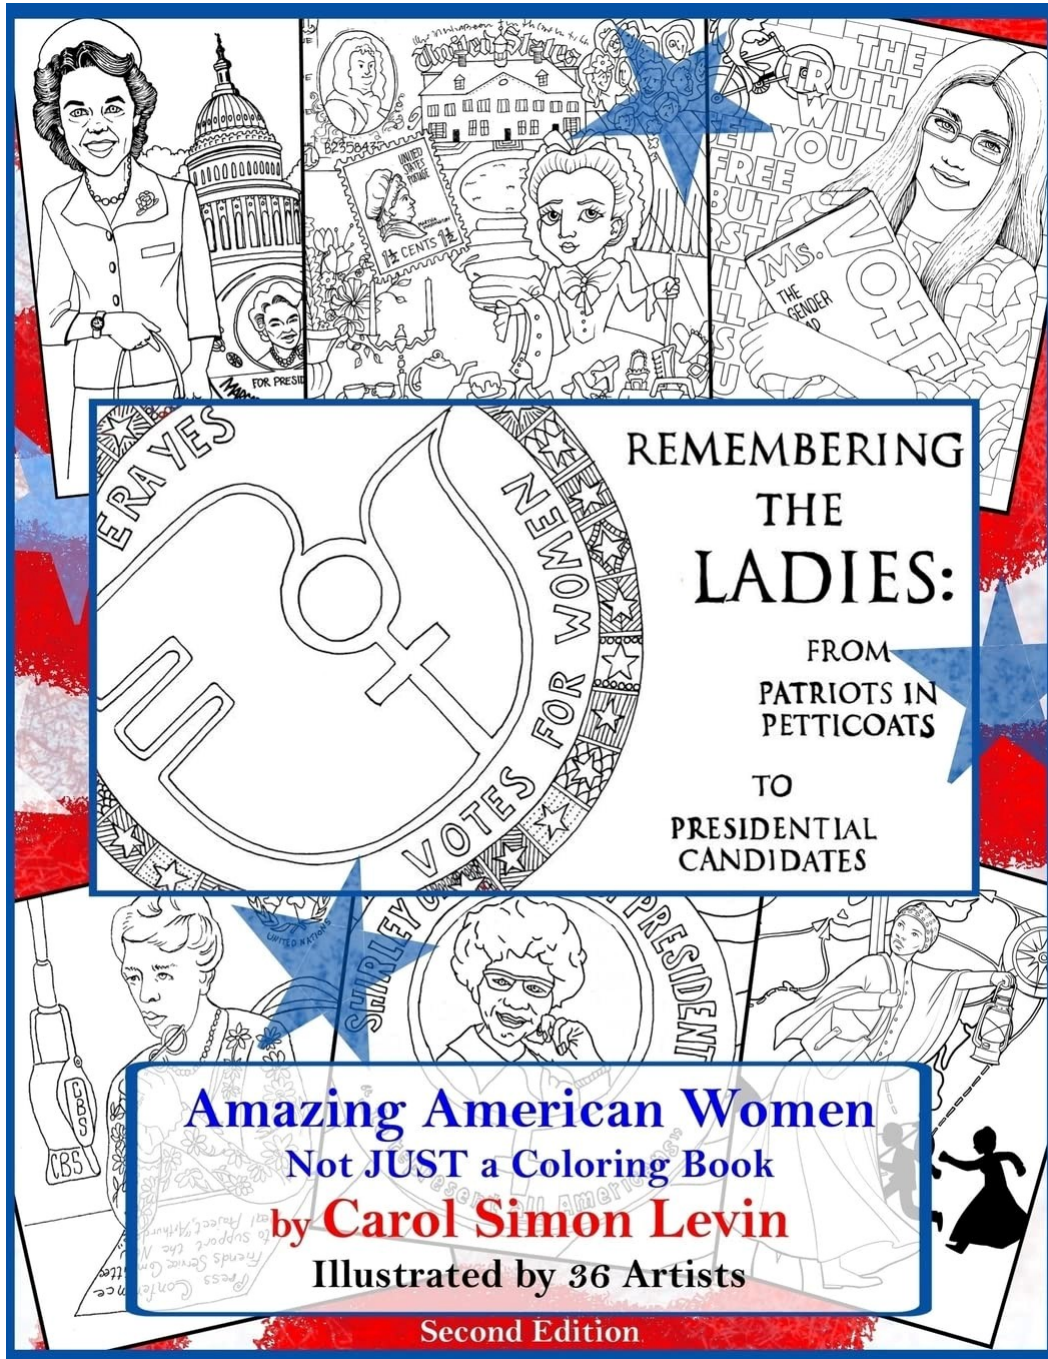

Abigail Adams (portrayed by Carol Simon Levin, librarian and storyteller) takes us on a whirlwind tour through time telling the stories of women from Martha Custis Washington to Hillary Rodham Clinton. Learn about the founding mothers, women abolitionists and Suffragists, women advocates for worker, immigrant, women's & civil rights, and women in government. Many you've probably never heard of.

March 21, 2024 at 6 pm in the library's meeting room 100 Community Drive , Skillman
Refreshments.

The program, co-sponsored by the Van Harlingen Historical Society and the Montgomery Library, is free and open to the public! Refreshments!

Questions? Call 908-359-8304 or email library@vanharlingen.org

Click here!
Check out some amazing American women
Carol Simon Levin's 'not just a coloring book' book